Insure.com Named as a Best List Web Site by Kiplinger's Personal Finance for Third Year in a Row

DARIEN, Illinois (November 6, 2008) – Insure.com, Inc. (Nasdaq: NSUR) has been recognized by Kiplinger's Personal Finance as one of the best sites for life insurance for the third year in a row. "The Best List" appears in Kiplinger's December 2008 issue.

Insure.com was noted for revealing to consumers the "detailed criteria" that one must meet in order to have a life insurance application approved at the price shown. Life insurance shoppers at Insure.com can instantly compare rates from up to 30 leading companies, but can also view the latest financial strength ratings and see the detailed health criteria needed to qualify for the rate shown, such as maximum weights, tobacco use requirements, medical condition guidelines and traffic-violation restrictions.

"We are very pleased to have again earned this prestigious recognition from Kiplinger's Personal Finance," said Robert Bland, CEO. "Life insurance premiums are now at all-time lows, but price is only part of the equation. Our life illustrations show the latest financial stability ratings for each life insurance company and, as Kiplinger's has noted, we automatically include detailed acceptance guidelines on every life insurance quote, which makes it easy and convenient for individuals with health histories such as heart disease, cancer and diabetes to view the lowest possible life insurance rates being offered by the leading U.S. life insurance companies."
