DARIEN, Illinois (July 30, 2008) – Insure.com, Inc. (Nasdaq: NSUR), the only place on earth where you can get auto, life, health, home and business insurance quotes from over 100 leading companies and have the freedom to buy from the company of your choice, today announced financial results for the second quarter ended June 30, 2008.

Financial Results

Insure.com reported revenues of $4.1 million for the second quarter of 2008, a decrease of 13 percent from revenues of $4.7 million for the same quarter of 2007. Net profit for the quarter was $57,000 or $0.01 per share, compared to a loss of $299,000, or $0.04 per share, for the second quarter of 2007. Financial results for the second quarter of 2008 include a one-time telecommunications expense reduction of $225,000.

As previously reported, Insure.com reported a net loss of $512,000 on revenues of $4.0 million in the first quarter of 2008.

"Insure.com achieved a much-improved bottom line financial performance in the second quarter, especially on a sequential basis, due to increased life insurance policy sales and reduced marketing and operations costs," said Robert Bland, chairman and CEO. "Our #1 focus going forward will be to increase our internal telephone sales force from 40 life insurance agents to 100 over the next four quarters in order to fulfill our robust lead flow. Seventy-six percent of our customers are choosing to buy by phone, so we will continue to be frugal with our marketing budget while we continue to expand our telephone sales center."

"We have remained focused on being more efficient with the life insurance leads we receive," stated Phil Perillo, chief financial officer. "We believe that our core life insurance brokerage operations have not been impacted by the turmoil in other financial service and energy markets. Our new Remote Agent program has about 100 participating independent agencies and we have begun to generate small amounts of wholesale commission revenues from this new source in the second quarter, which we expect to grow over time."

Insure.com has a strong balance sheet with no debt. Cash and investments in marketable securities totaled $9.8 million at June 30, 2008, and cash flow from operations was a positive $407,000 for the second quarter of 2008.

Stockholders' equity amounted to $17.5 million at June 30, 2008, as compared to $19.2 million at December 31, 2007, with about $1.2 million of the decrease coming from the repurchase of Company stock in the second quarter. During the second quarter of 2008, the Company repurchased 316,000 shares and is currently authorized by its board to repurchase up to 600,000 additional shares in the open market or in negotiated transactions.

About Insure.com

Originally founded in 1984 as Quotesmith Corporation, Insure.com owns and operates a comprehensive consumer information service and companion insurance brokerage service that caters to the needs of self-directed insurance shoppers. Visitors to the Company's flagship Web site, www.insure.com, are able to obtain free, instant car insurance quotes, instant life insurance quotes, home, business and health insurance quotes from leading insurers and have the freedom to buy online or by phone from any company shown. Insure.com also plays home to over 2,000 originally authored articles on various insurance topics and also provides free insurance decision-making tools that are not available from any other single source. Insure.com generates revenues from receipt of industry-standard commissions, including back-end bonus commissions and volume-based contingent bonus commissions that are paid by participating insurance companies. We also generate advertising revenues from the sale of Web site traffic to various third parties. Shares of the Company's common stock trade on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the symbol NSUR.
